MISSOULA--

University of Montana academic deans will present degree candidates and UM President Richard C. Bowers will confer degrees at the 80th Annual Commencement at UM Sunday, June 12. Graduation ceremonies will begin at 2 p.m. in the Harry Adams Field House.

The commencement exercises at UM will be open to the graduates' parents, friends and the general public.

Besides conferring degrees at commencement, Bowers also will present welcoming remarks and the charge to the graduating class.

Deans presenting candidates for bachelors' degrees include Dr. Richard A. Solberg, College of Arts and Sciences, who will also present candidates for the associate of arts degree, a two-year degree; Dr. Jack J. Kempner, acting dean, School of Business Administration; Dr. David C. Smith, School of Education; Robert Kiley, School of Fine Arts; Dr. Louis Forcier, acting dean of the School of Forestry; Dr. Warren J. Brier, School of Journalism; Dr. Philip Catalfomo, School of Pharmacy.

Dr. John M. Stewart, dean of the UM Graduate School, will present candidates for masters', doctor of education and doctor of philosophy degrees. Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the UM School of Law, will present juris doctor degree candidates.

The Rev. Frank Matule, pastor of Christ the King Church, will present the commencement invocation, and the Rev. Beryl L. Burr, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will give the commencement benediction.

A special musical feature for the commencement will be presented by the UM Brass Ensemble, conducted by Lance R. Boyd, director of jazz studies at UM, and organ music with John Ellis, UM assistant professor of music, as organist.
